

DOS

All adults shall uphold the best interest of the child and ensure protection from all forms of abuse, violence, exploitation, discrimination, and bullying.

Any suspicion, disclosure, or incident of abuse shall be reported immediately to the designated Child Protection Committee (CPC) following proper reporting procedures.

Adults shall treat all children with fairness, respect, and dignity, without discrimination of any kind.

Adults shall use positive, respectful, and non-violent language in all interactions.

Adults shall provide a safe, secure, and child-friendly environment that supports the holistic development of all scouting participants.

Adults shall ensure that children are not exposed to inappropriate or harmful content, including electronic materials.

Camping area assignments shall ensure the safety, privacy, and protection of all scouting participants. Female participants shall be accommodated only with fellow female participants, and male participants with fellow male.

Accommodation arrangements shall be gender-sensitive and respectful of the rights, dignity, and identity of all learners, including those who identify as part of the LGBTQIA+ community, consistent with existing policies and with due consideration to safety and parental/guardian guidance.

DON'Ts

Engage in any form of sexual activity, conduct, or sexualized interaction with any participant at any time during the 2026 provincial jamboree or related activities.

Engage in any romantic, intimate, or inappropriate relationship with a participant, or respond to a child's emotional or romantic attention in a manner that violates professional boundaries.

Commit any act that may be considered grooming, exploitation, or abuse, including behaviors that may appear inappropriate, suggestive, or unprofessional in the context of delegation activities.

Allow a participant to stay overnight in an adult's tent or share sleeping quarters with any adult who is not their parent or legal guardian.

Invite or allow participants into private rooms, residences, or vehicles of adults without prior approval, official purpose, and safeguarding measures.

Be alone with a participant in a private or secluded space (e.g., hotel rooms, closed offices, or isolated areas) unless strictly necessary for official purposes and properly documented or supervised.

Perform personal care tasks (e.g., bathing, dressing, grooming) for participants who are capable of self-care, except when medically necessary and with proper safeguards.

Engage in inappropriate, excessive, or unnecessary physical contact such as hugging, kissing, fondling, rough play, or any touch that may cause discomfort or be misinterpreted.

Engage in any physical contact that is sexual, coercive, exploitative, or otherwise inappropriate under a professional sporting environment.

Subject participants to humiliation, discrimination, intimidation, or emotional abuse, including degrading remarks, threats, or harmful jokes.

Use language, gestures, or actions that shame, belittle, or psychologically harm learners.

Single out, favor, or provide special treatment (e.g., gifts, secret meetings, exclusive attention) to any participant in a manner that may create dependency, favoritism, or grooming concerns.

Establish inappropriate emotional connections or excessive familiarity with a participant, including giving special attention, favoritism, or exclusive interaction that is not justified by official duties.

Engage in private, secret, or unregulated communication with participant (e.g., personal messaging, social media chats, late-night calls) without official authorization or transparency.

Use participants' personal contact details or social media accounts for non-official or personal purposes.

Use, share, or disclose participants' information outside official delegation channels or without lawful basis.

Expose participants to pornographic, sexually explicit, violent, or otherwise harmful materials in any form. Bring, display, distribute, or access such materials within delegation areas or during official activities.

Consume alcohol, smoke, or use prohibited substances in the presence of participants or within delegation premises. Engage in gambling or other inappropriate adult-only activities while on official duty.
